

Who are we?

We are a startup fashion brand looking to present to key investors in the coming months. We have developed an iron clad business plan which outlines a thorough plan as to a new and unconventional take on apparel. We have conducted extensive marketing research and have come up with an idea unlike anything else in the market.

Who are you?

You are student in your final year or a recent graduate in the field of fashion design or textile. You have a passion for fashion and are up to date with all trends and industry pioneers. You are open-minded and willing to challenge current trends to create something new and different.

The skills you possess

- Knowledge of textiles
- Ability to create textile samples
- Ability to design

Are you a good fit?

- Responsible
- Organized
- Team player
- Time management
- Ambitious
- Hard working

Language requirements

- English and/or French

Eligibility: You must already have the right to live and work in Switzerland.

Note: The concept of the brand will be more thoroughly discussed with you at a convenient time due to matters of confidentiality and intellectual property.