

We are ACTORY - we get it done

ACTORY is a company for business building. We help customers to generate new ideas, commercialize innovations and achieve growth. We put innovation projects into action. We operate like an in-house startup. While using existing resources within companies first, then blend in missing resources and skills from our own pool of experts. We are action-driven makers who believe in the power of co-creation. By combining business, design, tech and people's expertise, we accomplish ambitious goals. > www.actory.com

For the further expansion of our team we are looking for a

FUTUREPRENEUR / Trainee Business Building (f/m)

(60 - 100%, with option of a permanent employment after 6 months)

What are your tasks?

- Contribute to the innovation projects of our Venture Architects and Business Designers with researches, project coordination and administration
- Take responsibility for your own projects - not only in the background, but also as a direct contact person for our customers

What is your background?

- Academic degree or just before graduation
- Some work experience - convince us that you have already proven to do things and that you know what it means to get your hands dirty and create tangible results

What can you expect?

- Chance to work with inspiring business builders and to learn from committed experts in different fields of expertise
- True collaboration and agile development with modern methods
- A lot of responsibility from the very beginning and personal contribution to "live" projects
- Working remote / home office (ACTORY office and main client in Rotkreuz)

If you are action-driven, like new challenges, are flexible, want to take responsibility, have a positive attitude, believe in the power of borderless teamwork and speak german fluently, we would love to hear from you.

Please send your complete application dossier to our external HR partner synfluence: bewerbung@synfluence.ch