

We are looking for you!

We're searching for a business partner/CTO to take over the development of a full-stack mobile app with a good sense of humor, know-how and technical expertise to manage the technical strategy and deliverables for our app.

We already have a mature product, with a working server side and client app. We are currently finalizing the final details and need a CTO to manage deliverables, security and operational aspects of going live.

If you are ambitious and looking for a challenge, then you are the right candidate for us. We are offering equity on meeting milestones. In return we expect the following:

- managing deliverables from external engineer (code review, coordinate deployments and coordinate testing-feedback)
- Good at communicating requirements to the engineer
- Participate on advanced technical solutions if applicable
- participate in meetings to ensure technical decision conform to the product
- manage to ensure security aspects are covered (reviews, audits, risk mitigation, etc)
- manage the Network and load, to allow scaling as needed
- manage the Host provider to support functional and non-functional requirements
- process server logs and visualize ngnix logs
- cost analysis of host services and advice on providers

About ASBEDA

We are a small startup developing a messenger App. Despite the plenty of messenger apps available, we couldn't find one that matched our ideas and wishes.

We see us as a young, dynamic team with the vision to bring innovative quality products to the market and to revolutionize the messenger world.

If you think you have an analytical way of thinking, you have a good understanding of overall business contexts as well as result-orientation and implementation skills. Your secret recipe for communication consists of an authentic appearance, appreciative feedback and trustworthiness. Personal responsibility, reliability and team spirit are at the top of your personal scale of values, please contact us on office@asbeda-int.com to discuss in detail.

We look forward to working with a business partner, with a similar vision to us, and to participate in making this project a success for all.
